ATTEMPT TO IDENTIFY ARMED ROBBERY SUSPECTS 5 SOUTH HOUGHTON ROAD

At approximately 12:40 a.m. on June 22, 2013, two unknown male suspects entered the Chevron Gas Station located at 5 South Houghton Road. Both had covered their faces. One of the males had a handgun. Together, they collected over 350 packs of various brands of cigarettes before leaving the store. The male with the handgun was described as having a "heavy Hispanic accent." He was wearing an olive colored t-shirt, royal blue pants, an Oakland Raider's baseball hat, and a black bandana on his face. The other male was wearing a black "Tapout" sweatshirt and black pants. Detectives from the Robbery Unit believe the subjects may be illegally selling the stolen cigarettes. If you have information regarding illegal cigarette trafficking, please call 911 or 88-Crime. Photographs of the suspects that were obtained from surveillance footage at the Chevron Gas Station on June 22, 2013 are included below.
